He raised the pos-sibility of the yellow peril in citing what Japan had tried to do at Mag-dalena bay three years ago, when a Japanese syndicate tried to buy a strategic point there. Should such a question arise under a league of nations, he asserted, it would have to be submitted to a group of foreign to be submitted to a group of foreign powers, who might easily be hostile to our interests. In South America he also contended, our hands would be stayed by European where be stayed by European rulers who had covetous eyes on that continent.

FORCIBLY TATTOOED

Ship's Fireman Victim of U-Boat Captain's Grim Humor.
(London Times-Phil. Ledger Cop. Correspondence.)

Newcastle, Dec. 20.—Burton Mayberry, a ship's fireman, has arrived in Newcastle bearing on his cheeks tatoo marks which, he states, were inflicted by two German sallors, to the order of a German submarine commander.
The head of a cobra is tattooed on each cheek in blue and red.

Mayberry is 39 years of age, unmarried and a native of London, and in April. 1917, he left in his ship, bound from Southampton to New York. When they were six days out, they were tor-

they were six days out, they were tor-pedoed by an enemy submarine. The crew took to the boats and the boat crew took to the boats and the boat containing Mayberry and nineteen other men was ordered to approach the submarine. When alongside, the submarine commander, a man of powerful build and about 36 years of age, ordered the men to board the U-boat. Mayberry was the first to reach the deck, and the commander, speaking in broken English, told him that England was the cause of the war and that but for her, Germany would not have been in the situation she was in at that time.

The commander ordered him to get down on the deck and curse England, but Mayberry refused. Two German scamen, in obedience to an order, seized hold of Mayberry, and, after forcing his arms behind-his back, passed a bar through them, which was end.

When the unfortunate man, who suffered great pain, was made helpless, the commander, with a malicious grin, said he would put on his face designs said he would put on his face designs of something that would devour him if he went to see again. The German officer then went below and returned with a box, which contained an electric tattooing needle. Two of the German sailors, somewhat unwillingly, Mayberry thought, performed the painful operation of tattooing, which insted half an hour. Mayberry, who felt sick and faint after the ordeal, was then turned adrift. After three days without food and with only a little tobageo among them, the men were picked up by a fishing vessel. One man died from exposure.

"Y" Furnishes Amusement in English "Water Hospital."
London. Dec. 28—(By Mail.)—A moving picture audience in bath tubs through which warm water flows is the entertainment oddity provided in film shows by the American Y. M. C. A. at the hospital under the shadows of King's college, Cambridge, where wounded men from France are treated. In one ward, certain of the patients, who have had very zerious septic wounds, are having the water treatment.

A kind of magnified lap-board covers the top of the tub, and is in turn covered by a long, bright patch quift. And there the men sit on air cushions, leaning against air pillows, day and night, sometimes for weeks at a time. Only the most serious cases are put into these baths, men who otherwise have little chance of recovery and none without the amputation of a limb. But never yet has a case so treated been lost.

"It's beastly uncomfortable the first week." said the record case of the ward, a British Tommy who was for cleven weeks in the bath. "Your legs ache and you have the water rash. But in a week, at most, you get over that, and then it is more comfortable than being in bed, in fact, after they put you back in bed you can't sieep for a while, it's so hard."

The American Y. M. C. A. has been sending these men "movies" twice a week. A screen has been arranged at one end of the hut and there all the screen involves play their parts while the men sit comfortably in their wafm

FIRST BAPTIST INSTALLS

"Six-Point" Record Feature of Sunday School-Keeps Pace With Progress.

Keeping apace with other big and ogressing Sunday schools of the uth, Chas. F. Hood, superintendent, and the teachers of the First Baptist Sunday school will install the "six oint" record system Sunday morning. Already members of the school have been informed to be prompt and be on time—9:30—in order to cooperate with the plan. The system is one that many Sunday schools are adopting. Its object is to show the results of the work by placing a premium on prompt and regular at-tendance both at Sunday school and the preaching service, studied les-sons and efficiency in general. Recognizing the importance of the Sunday school work, practically all of the state educational conventions of the south have agreed to give a certain percentage of credits in the bible school. At the end of the public school year each pupil who is entitled to a credit on his or her repo for work done in Bible schools w be given a certificate of credits by the Sunday school secretaries. In announcing the new system the com-mittee of the First Baptist Sunday school has preed both the parents the older members of the school to lend their hearty suport in order that the pupils will be encouraged by their example.

The Unitarian church held a ban-quet at the church New Year's eve-ning, Agoodly number of guests were present. The Ladies Alliance as hostesses, served a turkey dinner. A number of toasts were offered and many possible social and educational activities were outlined for next year. The finance committee reported the best conditions in the history of the organization. The old board of officers was re-elected, consisting of Messrs. Fred Arn, T. C. Rowell, Prof. Jos. O. Cadek, Mrs. C. W. Loftin and Mr. David Silver, secretary.

In the place of the regular evening service there will be one at 3 o'clock in the afternoon, at which time a re-ception will be tendered Dr. Pickard, when he will be welcomed by the Central church, by the Baptist churches and other denominations of the city and by the Baptists of the
